

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS
WEIMAR AND THE CONSTITUTIONAL CYCLE POST GREAT WAR

In the Centenary of the Weimar Constitution, 1919-2019

Lisbon Geographic Society
November 28-29, 2019

Elapsing in 2019, a century since the creation and implementation of the Weimar Constitution, the Lisbon Geographic Society promotes, in co-organization with the European Centre for the Study of Constitutional History (CHC), with the Institute of Contemporary History (IHC) of NOVA University Lisbon, with the CEDIS – Research Centre on Law and Society of NOVA University Lisbon, and with the Universidade Europeia, the holding of an International Congress dedicated to this event. The Congress will take place on 28 and 29 November, seeking to bring together the contribution of researchers and interested, around the following thematic areas:

- I – Weimar Constitution Weimar in constitutional history and historiography
- II – The historical-political context of the Weimar Constitution
- III – The Weimar Constitution: sources, works and constituents
- IV – The organization of political power in the Weimar Constitution
- V – The fundamental rights in the Weimar Constitution
- VI – The coeval Constitutions of Weimar: The Constitutions of the End of the Great War
- VII – The coeval Constitutions of Weimar: The Constitutions of the immediate post War
- VIII – The influence of the Weimar Constitution

Experts and interested in participating are invited to send, until September 30, to the congress email: congressoweimar2019@hotmail.com, the theme and the respective abstract (maximum of two pages), accompanied by a biographical note. After examination by the Scientific Council, the authors will be duly notified until October 10.

The final program, as well as the volume with abstracts of the communications, will be available from November 9.

Participants in the Congress are requested to send their final text by December 31.

The official languages of the Congress are Portuguese, Spanish, French, English and German.

SCIENTIFIC COUNCIL

Profs. Doutores Luís Aires de Barros, Armando Marques Guedes, Diogo Freitas do Amaral, Eduardo Vera Cruz, Fernando Larcher, Isabel Graes, José João Abrantes, Jorge Bacelar Gouveia, Miguel Ayuso, Paula Borges Santos e Pedro Velez.

